He headed an automobile parade here which invaded Lestershire and Endloott, where there are large shoe factories.

All the speakers in the Governor's party ought to overcome Glynn's lead among the shoe factory workingmen by attacking Glynn's claim for credit in passing the workingmen's compensation act and asserting that the act was the result of the work of Charles E. Hughes.

Ex-Senator Harvey D. Hinman, leaving a sick bed against his physician's orders, presided at to-night's meeting in the Armory Theatre attended by 1,600 per-sons. Mr. Hinman paid high tribute to

> "Thus when Gov. Hughes and President Taft urged the Republican Jimmy, Mr. Wadsworth, to favor a resolution for the fullest and widest inquiry into corruption after the Allds disclosures of bribery Barnes doggedly opposed the resolution, just as years ago Dave Hill opposed a Statewide demand for investigation of the frauds of the canal ring.

"When Wadsworth left the Speaker's chair and led the fight on the floor of the Assembly against the Chanler resolution for an investigation of all corruption Barnes gave a display of what he regarded as saving Republicanism from destruction. Wadsworth was offered a choice of masters; he preferred Barnes to
